To whom it may concern:

It is my pleasure to recommend the band Ludwig's Van for your entertainment needs. As the entertainment chair for the 2005 Everett Relay for Life, I was faced with the daunting task of securing high energy entertainment to help keep people moving throughout the event. I was very fortunate to have one of our committee members recommend this band.

The night of the event was chaotic and entertainment turn around time was very limited. As I have never worked with entertainers before, I could offer very little direction. Through it all, Kurt and the other band members were wonderful, they had a great sound and their set was spot on to the needs of the evening. They are definitely on the call back list for next year.

Sincerely,
